

Brownies 1576, 2000
Fly-up and investiture of Brownie Troops 1576 and 2000 were held at the home of Mrs. Dale Cote, 20836 So. Brighton, Torrance, on June 6.

Welcoming parents of the girls were Mmes. J. Trygstad and L. B. Brannon. Mrs. Brannon presented Brownies their wings and year pins. Mrs. M. Lehr presented the Girl Scouts' pins for investiture.

Patrol E (tenderfoot Scouts) consisting of Carol Gremminger, Toni Sue Ainsley, Sandra Chmielewski and Andrea Tindley presented a one-act drama. Overnight campers had a barbecue planned by Dianna Brannon, Dianne Lippert, Teresa Shivar and Nancy Nuttman of Patrol R. Decorations for the investiture were made by Patrol D, Deborah Cote, Karen Trygstad, Arlene Hopkins and Kathleen Choquette.

Brownie Troops 1576 and 2000 served parents and girls and also performed KP.

The following girls took part in fly-up and investiture ceremony: Dianna Brannon, Kathleen Choquette, Donna Jean Flicker, Carol Lee Gremminger, Arlene Hopkins, Susan Lillywhite, Dianne Lippert, Nancy Nuttman, Teresa Shivar, Sandra Chmielewski and Toni Sue Ainsley.

At present Girl Scout Troop 2000 is taking swimming lessons at El Camino College under the direction of Mrs. Lynne Farley of Torrance.

Mrs. Farley has been a Red Cross Water Safety instructor for six years and a Los Angeles City lifeguard three years. The girls passing tests will receive a Red Cross certificate and pin. The course is planned to last approximately eight weeks.

Brownie Troop 25

Members of Brownie Troop 25, directed by Mrs. Leon Warne and Mrs. R. V. Warde, closed their very active season with a family pot-luck dinner in Torrance Park Sunday. The following girls and their families were in attendance: Diana Campbell, Shelly Clark, Donna Cochran, Tamara Goddard, Carol Ogren, Pamela Hoffman, Phyllis Nation, Cindy Tolson, Irene Shinoda, Vickie Garrison, Kathleen Warne and Maxine Warde.

The last meeting of the troop was a trip to a nearby miniature golf course, where many of the girls "teed off" for the first time.

The last of May, the girls planned their menu and held a cookout in the Torrance Park. Games were played and the meeting was closed in Brownie fashion.

Earlier in the spring, the girls motored to Los Angeles to see the movie, "Sleeping Beauty." Just before Mother's Day, the Brownies planned and served a tea to their mothers. Phyllis Nation entertained her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Howlette, as a special guest.

The same group toured the Torrance Herald earlier this year as part of its newspaper month program.

Small Boat Docks to Be Made Here

Concrete Floats Corp. of Torrance has been appointed Southern California licensee for Unifloat reinforced concrete small boat docks, with exclusive rights to manufacture and distribute the docks in Southern California. Announcement of the appointment was made yesterday by Jack C. Collins, vice president-sales of Fibrecrete Corp., Long Beach, Calif., developer of the concrete docks.

Concrete Floats Corp. will manufacture Unifloats in its 2½-acre plant at 2410 W. Carson St., which has been especially equipped to mix and mold the unique docks, according to Aaron A. Alberts, vice president and general manager of the licensee firm. Other officers are L. H. Chandler, president, and R. W. Beall Jr., secretary.

Geographic area to be served by Concrete Floats Corp. includes the State of California south of San Luis Obispo to the Mexican border, including Lake Mead and both sides of the Colorado River in Arizona.
